To make 2012 the year you actually achieve your financial goals, start fresh by refinancing your current debt. Whether you're sitting on high interest rates with your home, auto or recreational vehicle loans, it's time to look into the possibility of lowering those rates or payments for both long- and short-term savings.

We understand this can be a daunting task and we're here to help. As a Fairfield Member, take advantage of the expertise and knowledge of your credit union staff. We encourage you to meet with a loan officer to discuss your financial goals and we'll help you make the decisions that are right for you!

Let's team up and get that financial makeover underway!
